Notes:

Arthur Moseley, interred at Blue Stephenson Cemetery, is believed to be the father of Betty Mosley, wife of John T. Dennison, citizen of Monroe County and notorious civil war bushwhacker. An account of the activities of John T. Dennison and his associates is given in Till #174 of the Audrain County Circuit Court records. File contains the record of his arrest and statement of James F. Lindsay, a captured bushwhacker of Monroe County, who married Triss Northcutt, a daughter of Thornton Northcutt of Audrain County. Names Capt. Samuel Murray, John Moseley, Reuben or Ben Canterbury Sr., Reuben Canterbury Jr., George Mosley, John Blue also known as Sawney Blue, William Campbell, William Uzzell, James Uzzell and others.

W.C. Bates married Caroline M. Blue Mar. 4, 1841 in Audrain County.

Daniel Galbreath was married to Flora Blue. Buried in Galbreath Cemetery
