

Keen Burying Ground

SW corner, Sec. 11, T52N, R12W.

A single grave on the north side of fence, at intersection of CoRd 132 and StRd C was listed by C.A.R. members in June 1972.

In 1980, Gene Gallagher noted that there is no longer a marker in place.

At one time a stagecoach station was located at this place, and the Keen name is on the abstract. By 1980, it was part of the Henry Mortimer farm.

Keen, James S., son of J.S. & S.R. Keen, died June 3, 1849, aged 5 yrs, 9 mos, and 11 da

Transcribed by C.A.R. members, June 1972

Copied by Gene Gallagher 1980