14. Antoine Soulard of St. Louis county. Aug. 22, 1826. Don Tenon Trudeau, Lt. Gov. of Upper Louisiana, gave Soulard 10,000 arpens of land in (now) state of Missouri, Terr. of Arkansas, in consideration of service rendered to the Spanish Govt. Surveys located this land on a branch of the Cuivre River about 70 miles north of St. Louis and 15 miles west of the Mississippi River. Surveyor: Don Santiago Rankin. Survey was recorded 8 Mar. 1804. Soulard said original decree was lost or mislaid or destroyed, and he erroneously neglected to file notice of his claim and failed to have his title recorded, according to an act of Congress 1805. By Sept. 1824 Soulard had died intestate. His heirs, Julia Soulard, widow, and his children, Jas. G. Soulard, Henry C. Soulard, Eliza Soulard and Benjamin Antoine Soulard sued to get title to the land. After several appeals the court found against the plaintiff.

Chouteau & Henry Chouteau entered in Pike co. a League Square of land granted to Auguste Chouteau from the Spanish government. Gabriel S. and Edward Chouteau, heirs of Auguste Chouteau, sold to John J. Grimes a tract of this land, under an agreement that Grimes would clear and improve as much of each quarter section as would entitle heirs to a pre-emption or settlement in case the claim of said heirs should not be confirmed. In 1832 Grimes sold his possession to McQueen. The title to the League Square was confirmed by the Supreme Court of the U.S. By Aug. 20, 1845, Thomas T. Smith was dec'd. Frederick W. Beckwith is summoned as Admr. of Smith, also he is gdn. of Louis C., Thomas F. and Philomena Smith, children and heirs of Smith. Gabriel Paul is dec'd. by June 1847 and his heirs are Adolph Paul, who is also Admr. of his will, Estelle Ulnice, formerly Estelle Paul, now wife of Richard Ulnice, and Therise Taylor, formerly Therise Paul and now wife of George R. Taylor. Heirs are contesting Grimes' claim to land as compensation for the improvements, saying that he removed and sold much timber, therefore his conveyance of land to McQueen was not a valid transaction. Most of the heirs reside in St. Louis county.
